

Submitting commitments for the Mutual Accountability Mechanism

Who is making commitments?

Under the Mutual Accountability Mechanism, all SWA partners, including governments, external support agencies, civil society, the private sector and research and learning institutions are expected to formulate, present and review commitments. These are drawn directly from the plans, strategies, targets and milestones that governments and other partners are developing to reach the WASH targets of the SDGs.

Defining commitments

Commitments must be agreed through multi-stakeholder processes, see the Mutual Accountability Mechanism webpage for more information.

Submitting commitments

Each country or organization should submit a maximum of three commitments focusing on your country's priorities.

There are different forms for submitting commitments, depending on whether you are submitting commitments as a government, or as an organization working at the national or global level.

For country commitments made by governments:

Governments can either submit an offline or an online form.

For the offline form, please use: country commitment offline.xlsx and send the form to:

commitments@sanitationandwaterforall.org

NB: When using the form, you can change the language of the form by choosing the appropriate language (English, French or Spanish) from the drop-down menu on the cover sheet

Governments can also electronically submit their commitments here:

For all other constituencies and organizations

For all non-government constituencies and organizations (civil society, research and learning, private sector and external support agencies) working at the country level, please submit electronically here: <https://airtable.com/shrTtPvuCfaUBSjE6>

Organizations working within a country can collaborate to develop constituency commitments or they can submit commitments as a single organization. This form is to be used for both situations.

For global organizations

For global organizations making global commitments please submit electronically here:

Please submit all offline forms to commitments@sanitationandwaterforall.org

All online forms will be transmitted automatically to the SWA database.

To have your commitments presented at the Sector Ministers' Meeting, please submit your commitments by Wednesday 20th March.

If you have any problems with any of these forms, or if you have any questions about making commitments please write to commitments@sanitationandwaterforall.org
